FOR INFORMATION

1. TRANSFERS COMPLETED
 - a) To the Presbytery of Detroit:
 - i) Timothy Marvil from Lake Michigan Presbytery
2. Report of the General Assembly Administrative Commission on the Synod of the Covenant.

In 2018 the Presbytery concurred with an overture prepared by Cincinnati Presbytery asking the General Assembly to form an administrative commission to look into disorder in the Synod of the Covenant. The 2018 General Assembly formed the AC and gave it the authority to assume original jurisdiction over the Synod. The Commission assumed Original Jurisdiction of the Synod in February and immediately notified the various parties. Paper B-A is a series of reports received by the Administrative Commission: February 14 memo, Communication Piece, FAQ, Position Description, and Report to the General Assembly.
3. The case filed against the Presbytery of Detroit by Michael Barconey by to the Michigan Civil Rights Commission has been dismissed. That is Paper B-B. The United States Commission on Civil Rights has not yet rendered a decision. If it, too, dismisses, Mr Barconey will have the right to sue in civil court.
