Some issues for consideration when consulting with a prospective Inquirer. Since this is the beginning of the process, primary attention should be given at this time to evaluating natural gifts, quality of commitment, strength of motivation, and potential for growth. Each of these issues should be pursued at greater depth during the period of inquiry.

- 4) What real and potential talents for ministry are evident in this individual (e.g., the ability to communicate, interpersonal skills, leadership or administrative abilities)?

- 5) What is the level and adequacy of the individual's academic interest, ability, and motivation?

- 6) What is the evidence of his or her physical health and stamina?

- 7) What is this evidence of his or her emotional well-being?
